

SET allows trading on GL's securities during February 17, 2021 – March 16, 2021 by purchasing with Cash Balance account

As the securities of Group Lease Public Company Limited (GL) have been suspended from trading by posting SP (Suspension) sign since November 17, 2020 and will reach three-month period on February 16, 2021 as a result of failure to submit Q3/2020 financial statements and currently, the company is still unable to submit the required financial statements.

In order to allow trading on GL's securities prior to the renewal of SP sign, the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) will temporarily allow trading on GL's securities during February 17 to March 16, 2021 under the following conditions.

1. GL's securities are required to purchase through cash balance account which means that the investors have to pay the full amount in cash prior to purchasing.

2. NC sign will be posted during such trading period in order to alert the investors to be careful in trading securities.

3. SET will specify the ceiling and floor prices of GL's securities on the first trading day, which effective date is February 17, 2021 onwards, at 100% of the last trading price. (However, if there is no trading of such securities on February 17, 2021, the ceiling and floor prices limit criteria will be valid until trading of the securities occur). The ceiling and floor prices will be subsequently adjusted to normal criteria from the next business day.

4. GL's securities will be excluded from the calculation of SET index.

After the end of such trading period, from March 17, 2021 onwards, SET will suspend trading on GL's securities by posting SP sign until the company is able to submit the financial statements.

However, SET recommends the investors to carefully study GL's information such as financial positions, operating results, type of auditor's report, major shareholders, board of directors, historical news as well as risks and other related factors. In addition, in order to provide service for the investors to access information, SET preliminary summarized information of the latest financial statements together with types of auditor's reports and the latest annual registration statements (Form 56-1) that the company disclosed via SET's Disclosure system.
